A/C Privileged

Hi Jim and Chris,

FB reached out this weekend with an urgent request to get an exemption from reported negotiations the Android BD team is driving, offering a premium tier to not allow OEM installers.

They are under the impression that we have an executive verbal agreement (dating back to Hiroshi & Jamie, 2+years ago) that Facebook should be exempt from these kinds of pitches, which adversely would hurt their business in a big way and is likely not the intended target of our negotiations.

Would be super helpful to get clarity on this asap both internally and externally. This will likely escalate today.

thanks,
ML & Nick (FB BD POC)
